First page carries assignment, so header area should be empty.

Page two has no assignment, so it should inherit page one.

No heading on this page means fallback from prior page.

Third page has assignment, so its header should be empty again.

Page four has no assignment, so it should show the latest value.

The fallback text should reappear here.